About SGA Youth & Family Services

SGA Youth & Family Services leads positive change for children and families in Chicago's most challenged and underserved neighborhoods. The agency has provided free, comprehensive services since its founding in 1911. SGA believes that sustainable community change results from a focus on early childhood, education supports, parenting, and workforce development. Collaborative partnerships, innovative programs, and measurable outcomes fuel SGA's efforts to replace the cycle of poverty with the Cycle of Opportunity. Learn more at sga-youth.org.
